

OFF AT OLD PIMLICO

Annual Fall Meeting Starts at Baltimore To-day.

PREDICT A RECORD BREAKER

Thoroughbreds from Many Sections Ready for the Fray—Cracks from Cassatt Stables Arrive—Chairman of Chesterbrook and Medallion Carry Famous Colors.

Baltimore, Md., Oct. 22.—When one of Superintendent Brennan's men placed in position the last flag on the grand stand at Pimlico this morning it was an indication that everything is in readiness for the opening day to-morrow of the fall meeting of the Maryland Jockey Club. For the past week Brennan's assistants have been getting things ready, and when the crowd enters the course to-morrow they will find that their comfort has been well looked after. Should the weather man prescribe sunny skies and a crisp October breeze for the next twenty-four hours, there will be a record-breaking crowd in attendance, for Maryland folk in all parts of the State have been looking forward to the fall meeting like a schoolboy looks to the day when vacation begins.

Never was the track in better condition for an opening day. For the past week horses have gone a mile in 1:40 and three-quarters in 1:14. At this time of the year, when a day out of doors makes the blood circulate faster, it is a pleasure to watch the races through the field. The sweeping field of dark green at Pimlico, under Brennan's care, presents its usual attractive appearance. Jumps have been strengthened and the course made safer. All of the cross-country riders are now here, and many of them will ride to-morrow when they go over the jumps in the steeplechase event. Among the stables ready for the flag to fall are those of Colt, Neville, Garth, Higginson, Smithson, Schorr, Wright, Courtland Smith, and others.

With such preparations the meeting will be, as the officials claim, one of the best ever attempted by the association. For the first time in a score of years the famous red, white, and blue colors of the Cassatt Stable will be seen at Pimlico. They will be carried by the clever gelding, Chairman of Chesterbrook, and Medallion, a three-year-old. It has been twenty years since the famous thoroughbreds of the late President Cassatt, of the Pennsylvania Railroad, raced in this section of the country. At that time the Cassatt colors were carried to victory in many a classic race.

Chairman of Chesterbrook, that won several races during the past summer at a long price, is a great horse in heavy going. At the Saratoga meeting in August he won from a field of good ones some 50 to 1 odds against him. He will again later at Sheepshead with 15 to 1 on the layers' stable. With Medallion and Chairman, Capt. Cassatt will undoubtedly win at Pimlico.

Glass, one of the best jockeys of the year, who has been riding with marked success on Metropolitan tracks, has written friends here that he intends to ride during the coming meeting at Pimlico. At the outset of the racing season Glass was practically unknown. His methods are much the same as those of "Marvellous" Miller. He understands the art of getting away from the post, as was shown in the handicap race for mares, distance mile and a sixteenth, at Jamaica, Wednesday, when he beat the "barrier with King's Daughter and won all the way.

Never before has there been such a good lot of steeplechase riders at the hilltop track. Practically all of the best riders in America will be seen in the events over the timber. A number of racers owned by J. W. Colt, the Genesee horseman, and trained by Mike Daly, arrived from Jamaica. They were Salvaterra, Pretty Michael, King Solomon, Peep In, and Oakhurst. Though Salvaterra and Thistledeale were reported as having been sold to Colt by W. Hogan, Colt did not disperse of the two horses, but bought them in Thistledeale, who will be seen in the jumping races, will arrive from New York to-morrow. Tim Donohue, the well-known steeplechase jockey, as against Colt's stable and will do the riding for the Genesee horseman during the meeting. Among the other cross-country riders to arrive were Nat Ray, J. S. Wilson, and J. R. Sullivan, who will ride for the stable of J. E. Davis, of New York.

Judge Bryan and E. C. Smith, who will act as the clerk of the scales, arrived late in the afternoon.

THE ALMANACS.

O Time! How rapidly it flies! Another year is near its dawn! A fellow doesn't realize how fast time's scooting till it's gone. I know this year will shortly go beyond our narrow mortal ken, for now the druggists start to show the almanacs for nineteen-ten. I have a bushel on my desk, and I have read them o'er and o'er—their dash of humor, Adamesque, conundrums of the days of yore. The same old people who endured about a thousand fatal ills, at last, at last have all been cured, by taking Dr. Bunko's Pills. I read about the ancient guy who had lumbago in his head; the doctors gave him up to die (they doubtless wished that he was dead), when some kind neighbor butted in, and brought a golden ray of hope, that made the gasping sick man grin, by telling of the doctor's dope. He took one box of Bunko's Pills (composed of tar and butter-scotch), and then he hopped across the hills, and licked Jim Jeffries and Frank Gotch. I read about the jay who bought Doc Faker's Wine of Glue and Pitch; of course the mixture hit the spot, and cured him of the barber's itch. The stories of the Brothers Grimm, and old Munchausen's cheerful cracks, and Aesop's yarns seem rather slim, beside those in the almanacs. So let us gather by the hearth when winter rages from his den, and read aloud with guileless mirth the almanacs of nineteen-ten.

Hildreth's Entry, Under Hard Drive, Takes Fifth Race at One and One-sixteenth Miles—Rules Favorite at Even Money—Dr. Holzberg and Queen Marguerite Counters.

New York, Oct. 22.—Although no stake race was on the card at Jamaica to-day, there was plenty of interesting sport. S. C. Hildreth's Woodcraft captured the most sensational event of the afternoon, when, under a hard drive from Dugan, he took the fifth race, at a mile and a sixteenth. He ruled the favorite, at even money, and Dugan kept him under restraint, while Dr. Holzberg, 9 to 5, was racing Queen Marguerite, 3 to 1, to submission.

Then as the latter stopped at the head of the stretch Woodcraft moved up, and, nailing Dr. Holzberg at the furlong pole, won by a length in 1:18.
